

The Center for Community Counseling and Wellness
UNIVERSITY OF SAN FRANCISCO

USF Masters of Counseling Psychology Program

is launching a new mental health counseling center focused on serving SF residents in need of high quality, informed, cultural humility focused and a healing framework. The USF clinic will provide short term (12 weeks) FREE therapy for residents and workers who have barriers to care including:

- poor/no insurance
- no/low income
- waitlisted/waiting for services

Therapy provided in English only at this time.

ANNOUNCING

The Center for Community Counseling and Wellness

Now Accepting Referrals

- Ages 18+
- SF resident or work in SF
- Individual Therapy only at this time

Email referrals & questions to: usfcommunityclinic@usfca.edu

Include: client's name, phone, email, reason for requesting therapy and referral contact information (if not a self referral)

Advancing Justice Through Community Mental Health

2350 Turk Street San Francisco CA 94117

www.USFCA.edu

The Community Mental Health Center is part of the USF Clinical Counseling Psychology Training Program